PRESIDENT: The Speaker invited everyone to make their own motion.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Mr. Speaker ...

PRESIDENT: If we could just get all the motions up and vote on all of them. Senator Savage.

SENATOR SAVAGE: I'd like to change that to reconsideration of our previous action on adjourning Friday sine die.

PRESIDENT: Well I'm afraid that is out of order. Because we have an intervening motion. It has to be an amendment to this motion. Reconsideration of a previous action is hardly an amendment, that's why. Senator Duis, do you want to speak on Senator Stull's motion?

SENATOR DUIS: Yes sir.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

SENATOR DUIS: Why don't we just stay here and do our work and decide at what time we're going to be finished, we'll just stay right here and work. When the time comes, we'll adjourn sine die.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, do we have a motion before the House? Did Senator Stull ... do you have a motion before the House, or was that in jest?

SENATOR STULL: That was a suggestion. I'll amend it and come back for the extra day the 30th of May.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I will ...

PRESIDENT: Now just a minute. We better get ... excuse me Senator Koch. Senator Stull, would you restate your motion again.

SENATOR STULL: We can't come back on the 30th because that's the day that a number of us have accepted an invitation in Chadron. The 28th, the 28th.

PRESIDENT: That's the 28th of May or July?

SENATOR STULL: May.

PRESIDENT: Alright. The motion presently is that we adjourn on the end of the 89th day and come back on the 28th. Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I yield to Senator Mahoney.

PRESIDENT: Senator Mahoney.
